

Siren and the Serenade

by Angela Cummings

A mystery novel for young readers featuring a detective who is as serious about solving the case as he is about his afternoon naps.

FROM THE BACK COVER

The streets and beaches of Port Townsend are alive with visitors enjoying the warm August days and spectacular vistas of Puget Sound. But one keen mind is preoccupied with a more serious issue: the tragic death of the town's most famous resident. Following his nose, instincts, and leads from locals, Detective Wellington sets out to solve the mystery of Siren, the Siamese show cat.

What did I know about Siren?

Well ... let's start with the obvious – she was elegant and refined. She had a reputation for stopping German Shepherds in their tracks. She was a blue ribbon winner of multiple events in her 11-month career as a Professional Show Cat. In a town composed primarily of rescues, half-breds, unregistered mutts, and more than one tripod, this was big news.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Angela Cummings is a poet and author of short fiction. Previous publications of her work include Slightly West magazine and Cobalt Review. Her short story "Humane" was selected as a finalist for the Aspen Writers' Foundation & Esquire magazine 2012 Short Short Fiction contest. She was born and grew up in the Pacific Northwest.

ABOUT THE PUBLISHER

Tulip & Hound focuses on short offset runs, providing independent bookstores and authors with more favorable terms than print on demand. The publisher contributes to preservation of the environment by donating 10% of profits from all book sales. In addition, the author of this book is donating $.25 for every sale to animal shelters.

Juvenile Fiction /
Mysteries & Detective Stories

Juvenile Fiction /
Animals / Dogs

Release date: February 2, 2021
Length: 160 pages
(29,000 words)
Ages: 8-12

Paperback: $8.99
ISBN 978-1-954126-02-2
First run: 2,000 copies

Ebook: $6.99
ISBN 978-1-954126-78-7

Library of Congress Control Number
2020921891

Publisher: Tulip & Hound

For more resources, ARC,
distribution, and publicity:

tulipandhound.com/press

pavel.soukenik@tulipandhound.com
+1-206-486-4285

Tulip & Hound

Copyright © 2021 Tulip and Hound Productions, LLC, d/b/a Tulip & Hound